DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 4, and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Dibelardino et al #6,334,510. Dibelardino et al disclose ladder assembly 1 comprised of hook 2, flexible belt rails 4, and aluminum rungs 5, each attached to the rails by means of support attachments 9.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dibelardino et al as applied to claims 1, 4, 5 above and further in view of Dowe, Sr. Dibelardino et al fail to disclose a fire retardant textile on the rungs. Dowe, Sr. teach the utility of a flame retardant material used to protect ladder components from fire. Therefore, to one of ordinary skill in the art, it would have been obvious to provide the rungs of Dibelardino et al with fire protection material as taught by Dowe, Sr., so as to protect ladder components from fire.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2 and 3 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
